That time has passed
There's some things that never really last
We've come undone
To me you'll always be the one

Calm down, people, it's just a little lie
You know it doesn't mean nothing
And I realize you could be right

Well, calm down, people, it's just a little lie
You know it doesn't mean nothing
And I realize you could be right

I walk alone
And you know I never felt at home
I'm so hard to please
And I have everything I need

Oh, calm down, people, it's just a little lie
You know it doesn't mean nothing
And I realize you could be right

Ohh, calm down, people, it's just a little lie
You know it doesn't mean nothing
And I realize you could be right

Calm down, people, it's just a little lie
You know it doesn't mean nothing
And I realize you could be right

Ohh, calm down, people, it's just a little lie
You know it doesn't mean nothing
And I realize you could be right
