If she thinks you don't say it enough tell her you love
her,
Every time that your baby comes across your mind (yeah)
And if you think your girl wants the world just give it to her
Be the sunshine that brightens up her life
Don't let her get away no.

Don't let her get away
If you really care enough, love her Everyday, over and over and over

Chorus:
If you take care of home you don't have to worry bout
your girl
(take care of home, take care of home)
Maybe if you keep her first you don't have to worry
bout your girl
(take care of home, take care of home)

Hold her hand when you walk through the mall cause you Know she likes it, Do all the little things you use to do
Day and night make sure you live to keep her happy.
Make her realize how beautiful she is, she's so beautiful Don't let her ?

Don't let her get away
If you really care enough (you better)
Love her everyday over and over and over

If you take care of home you, don't have to worry bout
your girl
(take care of home, take care of home)
Maybe if you keep her first, you don't have to worry
bout your girl
(take care of home, take care of home)
Repeat

You got a Queen so take care of her in every way You're so lucky, yes you are
And you're so lucky that she adores you so worship
The ground she walks on.
