

Saturday Sessions "This Silence"

Visit "This Silence" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm wide awake to reach out for you
Please call me and I shall answer thee
My hand is crawling down on my face
Now tell me where am I to find you

Hear me; you've lit the darkness in me
I'm calling you... I'm calling you
Hear me, when I call hear me
I'm calling you, I'm calling... calling you now

I give it all in every chance I take
Please catch me every time I fall down
I'm reaching out your hand in my deepest fall
Please tell me where am I to find you

This silence must be broken out
Hear me when I scream out loud
