Where have all the Christmas carols gone?
Listenin' to the radio, askin' to play them on
Sometimes it seems that my only happiness
Were your lovin' and your warm, sweet caress

But now that you're gone
I'm out here on my own
And mistletoes are just too much to bear
There's no one to share

When you came into my life
You showed me love
But since you left
Been here without you by my side

Christmas ain't the same, you see
Wishin' so that I can be
With you again
With you again

Sometimes I feel the coldness of the night
It ain't just right
Sometimes I feel the coldness of the night
It ain't just right

You showed me love
But since you left
Been here without you by my side

Christmas ain't the same, you see
Wishin' so that I can be
With you again
With you again
