Savage Garden
"California"

I got a cottage with a sea view
I got a regular summer tan
I been working up the courage to call you all year
(Ooh)
But there are nothing i can say and there are no good words left anyway
Besides people are cruel and the world still moves without you
(Ooh)
Welcome to my Californian home, you don't have to call me you can leave when you want
There's a picture above my bed and there's a light in your eyes
I don't know
Well I don't know whether you still feel alone

And we were dying from the get go
I was dreaming but you never believe
I was trying to fit myself into spaces between
(Ooh)
And you were kind and sometimes cruel
You said all the worlds love couldn't satisfy you
And nothing coulda hurt me as much as the truth
(Ooh, darlin)

Welcome to my Californian home, you don't have to call me you can leave when you want
There's a picture above my bed and there's a light in your eyes
I don't know but tell me coz I wanna find out do you still feel alone

Love is illusive when you search for it
And don't I know
Happiness sometimes it just creeps in
And don't I know it
I'm going crazy I've been wonderin do you still feel alone?

I need to find some kind of peace of mind
I need to find
I got a cottage with a sea view

I got a regular summer tan

I know that I deserve more but I still want you

Welcome to my Californian home, you don't have to call me you can leave when you want There's a picture above my bed and there's a light in your eyes
I don't know but tell me coz I wanna find out do you still feel

Welcone to my California
Even though I'm no good for ya
There's a part of me still waitin for ya
(Oh oh oh)

Welcome to my happy endin
Even though it's fun pretendin I know
I know you can't look back you can never go back
