Looking back on the memory of the dance we'd shared under neath the star above for the moment all the world how could i've known that ever say goodbye and now i'm glad did know the way would it end the way would it go our lives are better left to chance coul'd i miss the pain but now had to miss the dance
the dance
the dance

but could i miss the dance holding u i held everything for the moment was a king
and i life better left could i miss the pain but now i had to miss the dance
the dance
the dance
could i miss the dance
