I'm so homesick I can't breath.
I'm so scared that I sleep Whenever your heart stops beating, don't forget to call my name.
And I've found my voice, and I swear to God, if it takes all night I'm gonna open up your eyes

Don't stop, follow through I'm so scared, I'm so scared of this so scared so scared of this

You want all that's left of my heart You've taken everything away

What must be said, we'll say tonight
Hold your breath, Hold your breath
Don't let me go
