here i am now
i will go down
i'll tell you everything
here i am now
and show you who i've been here i, here i, here i am i want, i want, you to know come on and tell me everything

sweet carolina
won't you give me one last chance with you so we can talk about the things we use to do
and i know that you'll be fine cause i don't mind

here i am right now i'll tell you how it is this time i'll go down and show you how i've been

won't you give me one last chance with you

if i stood here
and i told you how it was would you stay with me this way

and gave it one last chance would you stay with me today would you stay if i told you how it was would you hold me and forgive me for this love

won't you give me one last chance with you
