In the land of Gorrion
Far across the sea
We'll journey there upon the wings of fire
Through the mystic portal
To find the ancient one
The quest to find the dragon's lair is mine Over the mountains
Far 'cross the sea
Follow the legend
Into the dragon's lair
The dragon's lair The gateway to his kingdom
Lies through the cave of dreams
There before us waits the dragon king
In halls of golden splendor
Bathed in blood red fire
The mystery of ages lies within Over the mountains
Far 'cross the sea
We'll follow the legend
Into the dragon's lair

The dragon's lair Now we stand before him
The last one of his time
To seek the ancient knowledge of the kind
He gives up words of wisdom
In a strange forgotten tongue Tales of knights and wizards lost in time Over the mountains
Far 'cross the sea
We'll follow the legend
Into the dragon's lair
The dragon's lair
Dragon's lair
Dragon's lair
Dragon's lair
