"Out Of Control"

Breaks away the chains that bind me
Gives me sympathy
Keeps me running on the high road
Keeps me living free

Never tries to steal my thunder
Helps me through the night
Always there to help and guide me
Makes me feel alright

There ain't no doubt about it
Just can't live without her
Moves my very soul
When we touch

I lose control
I'm out of control
I lose control
I'm out of control

When I feel depressed and lonely
She never asks me why
Always knows just when to leave me
When I start to lie

Tries to think about the next day
So I can survive
When I come home tired and weary
She keeps me satisfied

There ain't no doubt about it
Just can't live without her
Moves my very soul
When we touch
I lose control

She breaks away the chains that bind me
Gives me sympathy
Keeps me running on the high road
Keeps me living free

Never tries to steal my thunder

Helps me through the night
Always there to help and guide me
Makes me feel alright

There ain't no doubt about it
Just can't live without her
Moves my very soul
When we touch

I lose control
I'm out of control
I lose control
I'm out of control

I lose control
I'm out of control
I lose control
I'm out of control

I lose control
