Maybe you'll fall, maybe you'll break
Maybe you'll find what you needed
Find what you needed to say, needed to do I'll always come back and keep you, come back and keep you safe

Now it starts to snow
You're down in the road you know
You look for a sign to show, and waiting for quite some time I know

So don't turn around honey keep on keep on Listen for the sound when you know in your heart you'll know
Looking down hold on hold on
This is what I found

Maybe you'll fall, maybe you'll break
Maybe you'll find what you needed
Find what you needed to say, needed to do
keep you safe
Come back and keep you safe

Call on your memories
I've been here before I think
I'll be right there for you
Never to far behind

So don't turn around hold on hold on Listen to the sound
Maybe you'll fall, maybe you'll break
Maybe you'll find what you needed
Find what you needed to say, needed to do
I'll always come back and keep you, come back and
keep you safe

I'll wait for you
And I'll wait for you

Maybe you'll fall, maybe you'll break
Maybe you'll find what you needed

Find what you needed to say, needed to do
I'll always come back and keep you, come back and
keep you safe
Come back and keep you safe
Come back and keep you safe
