

Say Never "You're Gone"

I count the days
I count the times we can't get back
A strangers face
Can't replace what we never had

The words unsaid
Run through my head, now and then
This photograph is all I have
Until we meet again

You're gone, you're gone, you're gone
Why can't you stay?
I need you here with me
In the worst way
Take me with you
Heaven's too far away

The way you look
The way you took my heart with you
I see your face
In everything that I do

No goodbye's
Not this time, never again
I call your name
Are you there? Are you there? Are you there?
Cos I can't hear you

You're gone, you're gone, you're gone
Why can't you stay?
I need you here with me
In the worst way
Take me with you
Heaven's too far away

I see your face in everything that I do
