verse

Closer to me then I am to myself, now you've gone far away, I'm stuck far from ok, how's the weather does it rain there like its raining on my cheeks, making it hard to sleep, my temperature is rising I'm feeling homesick, in this place that I call home, well they say home is where the heart is,
then my heart isn't home, home is lying in your arms, chorus

This uncertainty is killing me, how I wish you were home, to comfort me and tell me, there's no reason to think, that I am alone,

It's funny how everything was fine, but then you turned off your phone, again I'm stuck all alone, does that crowded room keep you as warm as I could late at night, or does our fire burn to cold, I can't let my flame for you put fire in my eyes, I'm beyond the anger inside, but my temperature is rising to 451, you could have left your phone on,

chorus
bridge
It's 3 a.m., are you alone, it's 3 a.m., I am alone, it's 3 a.m. if your alone, then we're alone, together.
