Bright summer day, my heart has changed, everything's going to be ok,
I can not tell you that I miss my thoughts of regret,
I can not say, your heart should change, but I can tell you this,
We're wasting our time, losing our sleep, on things we think we've missed,

Chorus: Maybe in time, time will make my dreams
come true,
Maybe in time I'll find the love time made me wait for,
But I don't care right now, I won't waste another breath, on things only time can tell,

Hour glass drains, feeling remains, you know I dream big dreams too,
Lying awake, constant debate, with the voices in my head,
I am like you, the voices remain, but the truth is this,
I can't be losing sleep on things I think I have missed,

Chorus

Bridge: This breath I take, is not a waste, this breath I take, is not a waste, this breath I take, is not a waste, this breath I take, is not a waste of time,

Chorus
