Erase emotion, before you lose more, from this I've learned more about you, Experience, is the education, where the notation is the scars
So let's get this over with, what's done is done Don't tell me that I'm to blame, for what you've become,

Chorus: You still complain, and everything is still the same, honest, your life's not over,
You say that I, ruin every single day, honest, there's a reason it's this way,

Your one reason, so fabricated, what you hated, you've
become,
I laugh with your, friends when you call, to say how it's all, because of me,

So let's get this over with, what's done is done
Don't tell me that I'm to blame, for what you've
become,

Chorus: You still complain, and everything is still the
same, honest, your life's not over,
You say that I, ruin every single day, honest, there's a
reason it's this way,

Ending: these are the last words that you'll hear from me,
This is the last song that will be about you
