Sucking through my veins
As you drink my blood
Have you had enough
I have had enough
I don't wanna see you again
I don't need your lies
You lied to me
You lied
You backstabbing bastard
I cannot trust you
Go keep your poison
Go keep your poison and get lost

Death to my prince who drains my blood
Me im your ragdoll
And now you ask for a chance
Now you ask for a chance no

Sucking through my veins
As you drink my blood
I have had enough
I don't wanna see you again
I don't need your lies

I dream of playing with your rotting corpse
And as you decay
I will she'd no mercy onto you

Go keep your poison
I don't wanna see you again
I don't need your lies
