When we wake at dawn the world has passed us on

So kiss me like this night will be the last of our lives

Oh oh oh All I know could never mean what you need it to

Oh oh oh All I know I'll never be there when you need me

Can you deal with it?

Just get up and go on your way and take what's left of this day

To measure and design a fate that you can define

Cause all I know (all I know)

Could never be, could never be what you need

I'll never be there when you need me. Can you deal with it?

I'll never be there when you need me. You need me.
You need me.

Can you deal with it?
