I'm waiting
Closed door and empty room
You're out there
There's not much left that I can do
You're with her, she's charming
You're having fun
Like poison it kills me
I'm on the run

'Cause it's wrong hiding my love for you
And it's wrong thinking it can't be true
That one day our lives will be like one
You and I

Still waiting for hours and you ain't there
Feels cold empty, like you don't care
I'm leaving with memories and so much guilt
So stupid, I miss you
Please come back

'Cause it's wrong hiding my love for you
And it's wrong thinking it can't be true
That one day our lives will be like one
You and I

'Cause it's wrong hiding my love for you
And it's strong thinking it can't be true
That one day our lives will be like one
You and I
