Like the day I was born into this world
I don't know exactly what to do
I can see the world around me
But everybody has changed into something new

I can see those things you said now
Manifest and yes I do recall
A time when I was too blind then to even see at all
Now I can see those things waiting there for me
If that's the prize then there's no price I won't pay

And I am tougher now than I have ever been
I've seen everything I have and bear a grin

I was wishing for that day
I'd wish my loneliness away
And I know everything there is to say

I was waiting forever to see what's wrong
"I can't feel the same way
As everybody else I'm trying
I do not feel the same way as you
I don't know what to do"
But if that's the prize than there's no price I won't pay

And I am tougher now than I have ever been

I was wishing for that day
I'd wish my loneliness away
And I know everything there is to say

Waiting forever to see what is wrong
Waiting for someone to come my direction
I remember the darkest of days, now there gone
And every time I think I've abandoned you

What could it be?
I'm waiting for you
I'm walking alone on the road we paved for two

I couldn't help, blaming myself
I came all this way just to be with you
