

Scapegoat "Gone"

Visit "Gone" on MotoLyrics.com

I felt so cold
when through me
she went

so though you're gone your presence resides in me till I can show you that I'm something tonight is there a way to cut these corners?
until I know I'll give it all I've got throw me away

cuz its cold outside
so throw me away

ice sharp as knives
is spread through my neck I thrive and I feed
on your kiss
which I live

despite myself control
I can't keep my hands off of you and even if I tried I don't think it would last very long so I'm searching through my heart I'm finding where you stay so I can separate myself and tear you away
