She don?t even understand what she does to make me
mad
I?m beyond our love, this tension that we had Put it in the past, our love will last if your time goes slow
or fast
It?s my tradition, I?ll take my position and watch the whole galaxy glisten

On cloudy days I bet the wind blows an extra breath for you to breathe
On sunny days I bet the windows are extra clear for you to see
You always seem to be away, you stop in but you never stay
I may be led astray
(Let the moonlight shine)

She don?t even understand what she does to make me
mad
I?m beyond our love, this tension that we had, uh-huh
Put it in the past, our love will last if your time goes slow
or fast
It?s my tradition, I?ll take my position and watch the
whole galaxy glisten
By the light of the moon is where I?ll meet you at
I got your back and my love is always intact
Cause when we die, we going to the same place
So take my arm and let me lead you to the moon?s
face

My memory recalls it all, the up times and the downfalls
I hear your voice through the hallowed halls
It ain?t you, it?s the sky talking to me
When I was young at times I used to wonder if you knew me
I take that back, no sympathy
Just hear my ten-year symphony
This is a gift from me
Let the light of the bright moon shine

She don't even understand what she does to make me
mad
I'm beyond our love, this tension that we had, uh-huh
Put it in the past, our love will last if your time goes slow
or fast
It's my tradition, I'll take my position and watch the
whole galaxy glisten
By the light of the moon is where I'll meet you at
I got your back and my love is always intact
Cause when we die, we going to the same place
face
By the light of the moon is where I'll meet you at
I got your back and my love is always intact
Cause when we die, we going to the same place
face

In '76 I was born into the mix Kiss the crucifix, I live my life in the sticks
And this moonlight shinin' has got me checkin' silver linin'
Collect calls is all I'm findin' when my family's dining
I feel betrayed in a way but then again
It ain't my life to be lived Cause yo she gotta do the temperature
Just be happy that she's healthy is what they tell me
But they don't feel me
And they don't know my brother's in her belly
And all I really want in life is the average Ain't no luxuries to fuck with me I'll manage
But now the light of the moon has got me singin' tunes Playin' tunes, I'm wonderin' if you'll be home soon
But if you ain't, that's aight cause I ain't bout to lapse
I win awards, catch acclaim while I'm makin' stacks
And when you back we can act like you ain't never left Cause I got love to the moon until my last breath

She don't even understand what she does to make me
mad
I'm beyond our love, this tension that we had, uh-huh
Put it in the past, our love will last if your time goes slow
or fast
It's my tradition, I'll take my position and watch the
whole galaxy glisten
By the light of the moon is where I'll meet you at
I got your back and my love is always intact
Cause when we die, we going to the same place
face
By the light of the moon is where I'll meet you at

I got your back and my love is always intact
Cause when we die, we going to the same place
face
