Humans feed off bullshit...a numbing reminder from this self-induced critic.

I proved what I already know.

If I stood here much longer I couldn't take myself for much more than what

You already think I am. Faith was found in my self.

What is it they're looking at? What is it they're talking at? What is it

About you? What inspires me to attack this hollow? this shelter? this cover?

This is more than I ever want to show through my eyes...infect me...reform

Me...inscribe me...release me...(for haven't you taught me i'm worthless?)

Call upon your sense of self...that natural gift they took from

You...they've killed for your mind....they've raped your soul...and you let Them? Don't they realize these are lives. These are lives. Yours are lies.

Yours are lies.

They have raped your minds, now hear them cry out, get out, cry out, get

Out. You fanatic christian-muslim fucks. If I believe everything you preach

And every word you spit out blindly, then all you've truly taught me is

Godhates, godhates, godhates, godhates, godhates,
godhates, godhates,

Godhates, godhates, godhates, godhates, godhates,
godhates, godhates,

Godhates, godhates, godhates, godhates, godhates,
godhates, godhates,

Godhates, godhates, godhates
