I lie awake all through the night
And think of you to the break of morning light
Thoughts in my head, gotta make you understand That love is what you need, won't let you slip through my hands
You said you'd never leave but I guess you could be wrong
I won't have anyone to blame I won't have anyone at all

With a little love I keep holding on to you forever
With a little love we can see it through
We can see it through together

Try to wait and just hold on
There are so many things I believe could go wrong
So I close my eyes and pray for the day
That we can take all the lies and just turn them away
You said you'd never leave but I guess you could be
wrong
I won't have anyone to blame I won't have anyone at all

With a little love I keep holding onto you forever
With a little love we can see it through
We can see it through together

You said you'd never leave I guess you could be wrong
I won't have anyone to blame I won't have anyone at all

With a little love I keep holding onto you forever
With a little love we can see it through
With a little love I keep holding on to you forever
With a little love we can see it through forever
With a little love
With a little love
