This is new, quite new
And strangely familiar too
Different play, different stage
Same lines, rearranged

I'm still with the guys
There's still cat fights
I'm awake at night
Life is just like
High School in disguise

This is news, I've got the blues
And to win, you have to lose
The same clicks, the same chicks
In her hand, the same bag of tricks

I'm still with the guys
I still have to fight
I'm awake at night
Life is just like
High School in disguise

High School in disguise

This is new, quite new
