I got a whole lotta things to sing about
I got a whole lotta things to say
Like I love you and I need you every night and day

I got a whole lotta things I wanna do
I got a whole lotta dreams to dream
And I want you there beside me every step of the way

I was lonely as anyone could ever be Till you came along and gave your love to me
Now that empty world that you just walked into It's filled with sunshine and music and the song is you

I got a whole lotta things to sing about
I got a whole lotta things to say
Like I love you and I need you every night and day

I got a whole lotta things I wanna do
I got a whole lotta dreams to dream
And I want you there beside me every step of the way

People wonder just what's happened to me
They say I'm not at all the way I used to be
They don't realize I've just begun to live
And I'm just wrapped up completely in all the love you give

I got a whole lotta things to sing about
I got a whole lotta things to say
Like I love you and I need you every night and day

I got a whole lotta things I wanna do
I got a whole lotta dreams to dream
And I want you there beside me every step of the way
