It's getting colder
Each and everyday
The nights get longer
I slowly fade

Find me some beauty
In this empty place
Before you know it
I'll be gone without a trace

Give me a reason to
Wake up and face the light
I've been searching for
A way out of this life
How will i make it through
This long and bitter night?

(with no hope that i'll find a sign)
(with no hope that i'll find a sign)

When things like breathing
Feel like a waste
It seems like leaving's
The only way

The best intentions
They never got me by
I can't escape this
It has overcome my mind [x2]

It has overcome my mind [x3]
Overcome my mind

Give me a reason to
Wake up and face the light
I've been searching for
A way out of this life
How will i make it through
This long and bitter night?
(with no hope that i'll find a sign)
(no hope that i'll find a sign)

(no hope that i'll find a sign) [x2]

Nothing this good
Could last forever
(tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight)
I put all my faith in this knife
(tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight)
The blood spills as the tears fall from your eyes

I hope for the best
There's nothing left

[a fire burns inside]

Lets celebrate the romance in it all
(tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight)
I put all my faith in this knife
(goodnight, goodnight, goodnight, goodnight)
The blood spills as the tears fall from your eyes
