Music & Lyrics by Antonio Nunzio Catania and Scatman John

Hey Louis.....

Yeah?

Is that you?

Yes Yes

Oh,I'm Scatman John. Would you like to sing a song, man?

Well,sure could

Look out! 1,2,3,4...

(Scatting by Scatman John)

Everybody party down to Louisiana

Everybody jam (yeh)

Everybody come and take a ride with me

(Scatting by Scatman John)

Follow me everybody; let's head down south

To the land with the man with the message

His name was Satch and he played on the match

Everytime he played the horn another blues was born

Everybodys saying that the way he was playing

Had the whole world praying that he never gonna stop

He talks to Scatman all about scat

He's the father of it all as a matter of fact

Louis was a legend in New Orleans

And the Louisiana Dixieland scene

He made a decision that the old time religion to be played out the horn and the blues was born

Satchmo's breathin' deep in my soul

Let me sing it to you

Hallelujah

Hey,hey, whaddya say?

(Scatting by Scatman John)

Everybody party down to Louisiana

Everybody jam

Everybody come and take a ride with me

Hey,hey, whaddya say?

Get out the way, let Louis play

(Scatting by Scatman John)

Take a lesson that I learnt from Louis

He only give it to us 'cause he knew it would renew us

Love is the answer
Scat's where it's at
Louis said even you could teach a cat scat
Shouldn' t be talking about it talking to you
Louis was one swingin' happy guru
If you wanna hear the greatest trumpet in the world, well...
Sing along with me, sing along now
Join me in the opening and join me in the bow
Singin' in the sunset
Singin' at the dawn
You've gotta get it up if you want to get it on
Satchmo's breathin' deep in my soul
Let me sing it to you
Hallelujah
Hey, hey, whaddya say?
Get out the way, let Louis play
Everybody party down to Louisiana
Everybody jam (Everybody) (yeah)
Everybody come and take a ride with me (yeah)
C'mon everybody

Wotcher think of that scat, Satch?
As we scats say, it gassed man
How about a little solo Louis? Yay!
Now blow your horn, Louis
Everybody party down to Louisiana
Everybody jam (Hey, hey, whaddaya say?)
Everybody come and take a ride with me
(Scatting by Scatman John)
Everybody party down to Louisiana
Everybody jam (Hey, hey, whaddaya say?)
Everybody come and take a ride with me
Hey, hey, whaddya say?
Get out the way, let Louis play
(Scatting by Scatman John)
Yay!
