I could have picked a better reason than now
Like when your life was at an all-time high
Because I wanted to be the one to bring you all down
And I'm going to take my time
I've been given all of the time in the world
I wanted to be the one to make you all realize what you have done
Or the lack thereof
Because I wanted to be the one to bring myself down
And I'm going to take my time
I've been given all of the time in the world
And I must take my place on the other side
