I lay here dead where have you placed me,
Hung on a cross where you denied me,
I looked in your eyes but you refused me,
I took in your words but they just hurt me,
It hurts to say you never loved me,
Needless to say that you produced me,
Why is it that you never knew me,
Why is it that you refused me,
Johnny, Johnny, Johnny,
I gathered up flem,
Johnny, Johnny, Johnny,
And I spit in your face,
Ha ha ha ha ha,
Oh Johnny,
Remember that time when I was about 10 years old,
(I hoped you fucking died)
And I called you on the phone and you told me to never call you again,
Johnny,
But guess what 11 years later I did and I showed up at your front door step,
And you know what I did,
I spit Johnny,
I spit in your mother fucking face.
