I don't know what you've sacrificed and I don't know all you've done in life you can try real hard to explain but it won't come out the way you intent I don't know all that you have seen and I don't know all that you've been through there are things that you can't see in me and there are things that I can't see in you I KNOW I will never know your pain INSIDE, inside your heart in this mic I scream out heart and soul but there are things that you will never know I'll admit all I can in life but you won't know what lies deep inside I'll explain all the best I can but there are things that you won't understand THERE ARE THINGS THAT YOU'VE DONE IN LIFE and there are things that you've sacrificed THERE ARE THINGS THAT I'VE DONE IN LIFE and there are things that I've sacrificed.
