And I don't care about that new angle you used.
It's not that clever or new,
but relying on suspicions not suspicious at all if its true.
And I don't care about that last message I sent.
Now keep it for evidence.
Now baby what is it to you?

Detective, detective
well I hope you found what you're looking for.
I'm kind of confused what the benefit
of your doubt is worth to me anymore.

And did you ever think I was leaving this trail for you to follow at my will?
Well my guess is if you knew you would be moving much slower.
Your standards have lowered.
Now keep it cautious and still.
I only do it cause I can and you will.

Detective, detective
well I hope you found what you're looking for.
I'm kind of confused what the benefit
of your doubt is worth to me anymore.
Suspecting, suspecting
well I never said I never knew.
You know its not always about you.

Detective, detective
well I hope you found what you're looking for.
Detective, detective
now tell me what all that hard work was for.

Keep the lights out.
Hope no one finds out.
Keep your fingers close to the keys.
Keep your eyes on the prize
and rely on your flawless wit and instinct.

Detective, detective
well I hope you found what you're looking for.
I'm kind of confused what the benefit

of your doubt is worth to me anymore.
Suspecting, suspecting
well I never said I never knew.
You know its not always about you.
