Well keep our eyes so close to the sun
that we cannot see all the damage we've done to not just ourselves. There is no way well make it.
I know were going under as well.
And well keep our ears so close to the beat that we cannot hear you. And we wont move our feet to the sound of it all going down in flames.
Lets put this fire out. Lets put this fire out.

Well well. Were a heartbeat away from hell.
I know, and its easy enough to tell.
You know we are a heartbeat away from having no
heartbeat at all.

So lets keep the taste locked up in our teeth.
We wont let it seep out; no we wont let it leak.
You cant let it show, so maybe you just play your role in making sure that nobody knows.
Well I bet we get caught up in every way.
Well she said, I read it on your face all the same.
Well lets get so fixed on our problems and stay.
Lets put this fire out. Lets put it out.

Well well. Were a heartbeat away from hell.
I know, and its easy enough to tell.
You know we are a heartbeat away from having no
heartbeat at all.
Well well. Were a heartbeat away from hell.
I know, and its easy enough to tell.
You know we are a heartbeat away
from having no heartbeat at all.

Just say you needed it just as badly as me.
All we ever wanted was to be happy.
And just say you needed it,
just so we see we were wrong.

So it seems that all the casual conversations and all of the intimate situations were just figments of our imaginations.
When in all reality all we were doing was just lying to pass the time and dying to pass the hat from here hand to mine.

Well well. Were a heartbeat away from hell.
I know, and its easy enough to tell.
You know we are a heartbeat away
from having no heartbeat at all.
Well well. Were a heartbeat away from hell.
I know, and its easy enough to tell.
You know we are a heartbeat away
from having no heartbeat at all.
