there s no justice here there s just us, my friend we re close to the nail, we re close to the edge when an enemy s enemy aint no friend of mine now all that was good now all that was real or sacred is forbidden by someone who don t know hot it tastes four sheets to the wind again shiver my timbers are feeling the strain or setting forth with confussion nibbling our sail the stars are all out but they re all wrong tonight colliding, conspiring with satellites like it s the end of my tether here coming like we aint got the time no, we re not loveless, we re lovers lovers in a loveless place... and if it lives and breathes its safe, my friend well stay the night and watch till the end when there s rythm in the veins then there s rythm where the waters bend
