

Scheitan

"Autumn Departure"

Visit "Autumn Departure" on MotoLyrics.com

As the leaves fell I wandered forth with naked trees surrounding me I now began to reach the highlands where frost had it's spheres

Time had come to leave a last greeting, Azagh my friend, your work has been done, it's time to travel far beyond
And my pale horse died with the smile of a warlock

Autumn slowly departed as I climbed the frostbitten mountaintops

I felt my wrath become stronger, for each day they lost their hope

Finally I was there, at the highest point of them all I could see all of the wastlands while watching autumn fall

As the autumn departed, the lambs of christ heard the last command As autumn departed they felt my blood on their hands

Visit Scheitan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.