I've got my scars, my marks of time
Now i've found it, the key of mine I've travelled far I had to die
Now I own it, this land of mine

I've travelled long to reach this this imaginary sight I've lost all worths to be here at the portals of might

I've seen all there's to see all there's to hear Now I'm free

I've been all there's to be so dark it seems dead I will be

I watch the dawn, the last of sight this is truely the darkest night Release my wrath for one last time Destroy all living, final work of mine
