Yeah - I smoulder like an ember
Fans the fire into a blaze
And I try not to remember
I can't forget it won't go away
Hold on tight before we go down
Give it one more chance to be around
Compromise, sacrifice
You better think again
You better think twice
Some days we'd start and never stop
No, never stop, we'd take one day at a time
And never stop, no, never stop
So I'm sitting here waiting
I'm hoping I'm praying
It's like waiting for the paint to dry
I'm sick of hearing stories
About you and this fella
They call the other guy
Lets do it together, together again
Blue rinse ladies, beer pot men
We'll never stop, don't ever stop
Won't ever stop
Our love was held together
With a rubberband and a paperclip
And whatever the weather
We'd brave the storm in a papership
Say, what you don't know won't hurt you boy

I didn't build it up for you to destroy
Some days we'd start and never stop, no, never stop We'd take one day at a time and never stop, no never stop never stop
Staring at each other down opposite ends of a twenty inch telescope
As long as I can see that light in front of me
You know I'll never ever give up hope
Lets bring it together, together again
Long lost lovers - long lost friends
Don't never stop, won't ever stop, won't ever stop
--
Lets bring it together, together again

Blue rinse ladies, beer pot men
Don't never stop, won't ever stop, won't ever stop
Lets bring it together, together again
Long lost lovers - long lost friends
Don't never stop, won't ever stop, don't ever stop
