I ain't gonna call Hank Williams Junior, junior anymore
Even though I know what all his daddy done before Hank weighs close to two hundred pounds
And he stands about six foot four
And it's hard to call Hank Williams Junior, junior
anymore

Just a little bit of Waylon sure goes a long way But old Tex Ritter rode his horse and that was hell to pay Willie said don't nobody lay a hand on the bay Jimmie Rodgers is the only reason that I'm standin' here today

And I ain't gonna call Hank Williams Junior, junior
anymore
Even though I know what all his daddy done before
Hank weighs close to two hundred pounds
And he stands about six foot four
And it's hard to call Hank Williams Junior, junior
anymore

Hank sang it all right from the heart, took the whole world by surprise Stood right next to Elvis in Memphis and looked him straight in the eyes Ten years later young Bocephus busted through the door
And I just can't call Hank Williams Junior, junior
anymore

I ain't gonna call Hank Williams Junior, junior anymore
Even though I know what all his daddy done before
Hank weighs close to two hundred pounds
And he stands about six foot four
And it's hard to call Hank Williams Junior, junior
anymore

From Alabama young Bocephus busted through the door
And I just can't call Hank Williams Junior, junior
anymore
