Take off your skin and dance with me
Cut out your tongue and sing for me
Burn out your eyes in effigy baby
Scream out your heart in agony

Life is becoming a nightmare sequence
Haunted by their cheap lipstick smiles
Flesh decorations for teenage collections
You are just trying to hard now

You're so dead to me
I want to see you suffering for me
You're so dead to me
I want to see you suffering for me

Take off your skin and dance with me
Cut out your tongue and sing for me
I know that you'd do anything
Just to sink your teeth right into me

Death calls the insects crawl out the hole in your face
Where the lies poured out your life is destroyed
You are thirsting for violence the ghosts you created are calling you out

You're so dead to me
I want to see you suffering for me
You're so dead to me
I want to see you suffering for me

Take off your skin and dance with me
Cut out your tongue and sing for me
I know that you'd do anything just to sink your teeth right into me

Stare to the heavens the body parts gather
These lovely cadavers will block out the light
The total eclipse of the heartless
My dear watch the world disappear right in front of your eyes
Watch the world disappear right before your eyes
