Ooh He's such a mystery
That huants each lonley night
I'm scared; I might wake up
Cause if I should wake up
Then I'll be alone in the morning light

It's a mystery
What he does to me
Can I make him see, how I feel.
It's a mystery could he care for me
Will my fantasy ever be real
Or will he stay a mystery

Ooh He's such a mystery
Why can't I let him know
Just how much I love him
How much I think of him
But I'm scared to tell him so...

It's a mystery
What he does to me
Can I make him see, how I feel.
It's a mystery could he care for me
Will my fantasy ever be real
Or will he stay a mystery

It's a mystery
What he does to me
Can I make him see, how I feel.
It's a mystery could he care for me
Will my fantasy ever be real
Or will he stay a mystery
