I was sittin' on top of the world Deep in love with a blue eyed girl But the blue eyed girl told me goodbye And I fell like rain drops out of the sky

(Chorus)

Down at the bottom of a broken heart You will find her name Written there on a block of stone That once was a burning flame Now it's cold, lonely and dark Way down at the bottom of a lonely heart

Well, I took my love for my Sally Ann And I burried it deeper than a China man Where no one goes and no one can see Well, there ain't nobody here but me

(Repeat Chorus)

(Instrumental Break)

One day true love is gonna' set me free But till then I'll be here deep in misery Down at the bottom of a broken heart You will find her name Written there on a block of stone That once was a burnin' flame Now it's cold, lonely and dark Way down at the bottom of a broken heart

Yeh, it's cold lonely and dark Way down at the bottom of a lonely heart
