They say that you don't pay a prostitute to fuck You pay that bitch so after she get done fucking to leave
They tell me that I don't be loving these hoes enough
And I just said that loving from a g ain't what she needs
I met so many women that it's on now Hate to say it, but I think my heart is getting cold now Basically, I think that me and you should be alone now
I can't tell you what I wanna do tomorrow for an hour We're together I ain't confucius so don't be asking bout the future
I just wanna beat it up now, I'm a producer
So let's just make a song, you can sing along And we'll go back and forth like we're playing ping pong something like that

You know that you got it, I'm coming to get it
You know what I wanna do and I know that you with it
So what you waiting for? open up the door and let me
in, yeah

Will I see you tomorrow? are you coming here
tomorrow?
Oh, shake it...
Will you be with me tomorrow yeh

Look baby my daddy died and my granny had a heart attack
And all I wanna do right now is lay you on your fucking back
But you keep asking questions, depressions, oppression
It's getting harder when you think I'm usher, no confession
It's coming out my motherfucking mouth
So why don't you just take your mouth down motherfucking south
Sorry, am I being too hard on you? oh Chewing up my battle stars on you?
Listen, tonight I just wanna go hard on you Tomorrow I can talk about cause we too far from it

Shit, I know it's getting close to midnight But every time you say you love it, pushes me to this life

You know that you got it, I'm coming to get it
You know what I wanna do and I know that you with it
So what you waiting for? open up the door and let me
in, yeah

Will I see you tomorrow? are you coming here
tomorrow?

Oh, shake it...

Will you be with me tomorrow yeh

I told her, when the club is over let's get out of here and get more acquainted I got some bottles in my penthouse she told me now you're speaking my language And she got that and she told me that she really looking for a boyfriend
I said that's cool but while you're here let's focus on...
How bout you make me... tonight
Let me take everything off your mind So close to

You know that you got it, I'm coming to get it
You know what I wanna do and I know that you with it
So what you waiting for? open up the door and let me
in, yeah

Will I see you tomorrow? are you coming here
tomorrow?

Oh, shake it...

Will you be with me tomorrow yeh
