Music: James Kottak

Lyrics: James Kottak, Klaus Meine

Can you feel it, love is waiting there

When you feel it, I'll be waiting there

Something has come over me

I can't explain how full and free

I want you to feel it

Suddenly deep inside I have peace on my mind

I want you to feel it

On the last day that I walked the earth

I found the answer to the question that we all search

Where do we go from here

Can you feel it, love is waiting there

When you feel it, I'll be waiting there

Come inside, now you are cold

No colours block unopen doors

I want you to feel it

Suddenly deep inside you have peace on your mind

Tell me, can you feel it

It's the last chance to take a look inside

It's up to you to change the world for a better life

Where do we go from here

Can you feel it, love is waiting there

When you feel it, I'll be waiting there

Can you feel it, love is waiting there

When you feel it, I'll be waiting there

On the last day that I walked the earth

I found the answer to the question that we all search

Can you feel it, love is waiting there

When you feel it, I'll be waiting there

Can you feel it, love is waiting there

When you feel it, I'll be waiting there
