

Scorpions "Evening Wind"

Visit "Evening Wind" on MotoLyrics.com

A summer day is gone
Listen to the evening wind
Singing tunes of (tel aviv)?
Into the setting sun
You lie in twilight sleep
Dreaming colors deep
Today all life is gone
Look at the golden chalice
Flag broken on the ground
Ringing fire blazing round
Where are your friends
You see all hope
Lying broken on a slope
Today all life is gone
Have you ever listened to the evening wind
To the ??? and it through
Have a listen and you will see my friends
Wind is telling you the truth
