You know nothing about loving
You lost somewhere down the line
You know nothing about giving
You should draw the line

You keep looking out for something
Something youre never gonna find
When will, will you show your feelings
You will lose your mind

Whos to blame my love
You play a dangerous game
Whos to blame my love
All you want is money and fame

You play, play with emotions
You need, need a stepping stone
Youre out, out for sensations
Dont you, dont you feel alone

Whos to blame my love
You play a dangerous game
Whos to blame my love
All you want is money and fame

Whos to blame my love
You play a dangerous game
Whos to blame my love
All you want is money and fame

Money and fame
Money and fame
Money and fame
Money and fame
Money and fame
Money and fame
Money and fame
