(s. weiland / v. indrizzo)

They all just looked away
Who got the meaning must be a bigger man in those shoes

To keep the circus paid with beans they're eating
Must be a woman in those shoes

Da da da da - hey you!
Da da da da - hey you!

Mares eat oats and does eat oats
And little lambs eat ivy
Kid'll eat ivy too wouldn't you?

They all just looked away
Who got the meaning must be a bigger man in those
shoes

Mares eat oats and does eat oats
And little lambs eat ivy
Kid'll eat ivy too wouldn't you?

Staring at the city wonder
Picking at the window
Spent in overdrive

Keep a little secret
For the promised second coming
God is half the life

Lying on the floor
Medicate a little more
Sing and dance in time

Oh
