These long distance calls don't hold my love at all,
There's so much I wanna say, I'd rather say it to your face,
And girl it's killin me to hear you cry, I can't even hold you
And tell you it's alright,

Cause lonely is holdin me, just like you used to
I can hardly breath, hell I can hardly move
Baby, what am I supposed to do?
Lonely is holdin me

I wont break your heart; you'll have to break mine,
Cause that's the only way I can ever say bye,
Girl you're so far away, but you have a choice,
It's between you and your heart and I hope your Heart hears my voice

(2x) Cause lonely is holdin me, just like you used to
I can hardly breath, hell I can hardly move
Baby, what am I supposed to do?
Lonely is holdin me

Should I drink a little more?
Should I smoke a little more?
Try and kill this misery, try and kill this misery

Should I drink a little more?
Should I smoke a little more?
Try and kill this misery, cause since you've been gone,
Lonely is holdin me
