Lies! Lies! [x2]

Did you hear the news today?
We want the truth
Can you read between the lines?
We want the truth
Are you shown the way?
We want the truth
Believe what I say?

It's the end of the world
Well, would you even believe that?
You've got to see straight
Take care before it's late
Stop, stare, you are your fate
Be aware life's a long wait

Falsehoods - cry wolf [x2]

Patience is a virtue they say
It's easier to follow than to stay
But the truth hits like deadstops
Like the impact after a shot
Don't deceive your second thoughts
Take heed this all may be some shit
