Tonight the hounds invade the red light district
It's hard times for a guy to relax
Come dressed down in your robes and face paints
Expose' for those intact
Maybe we'll free John Wilkes Booth or Settle for John Doe instead
We come armed with dollar bills and hungry desires
We're just not sick in the head

Nature versus nurture
I must release the beast
Let us have our tools so
We can rest and breathe

With our revolution mindset afire
We won't leave until we're through
Bare and beautiful and enticing
Only clothes held on with glue
When they banned it from our zipcode
Half the town went fuckin mad
So now we gather here today to
Take our favorite passtime back

Nature versus nurture
I must release the beast
Let us have our tools so
We can rest and breathe

Give me back my porn
