Did you ever think you would end up in a place,
That's lacking reason with no offer for a second chance?
Keep on rising up to that level,
And become a victim of a circumstance.

(chorus)4x
Did you favor a lifestyle,
Of being told what to do?

Not just nothing.
Walk without bluffing.
Keep talking 'cause you're the only one who'll know.
Keep on rising up to that level.
Just hoping that it doesn't blow.

(chorus)

Did you always think I'd be around?
And be here to pick you up off the ground.
