Don't want to vote for no real change.
The climate's bad, so I'll feel strange.
If it's the work, It's up to you.
You say there's nothing left to do.

Can't be afraid.
Can't be misled.
By the smoke they spit.
And the words they've said.

Don't want to explain myself to you.
What's in minds, corrupted too.
And if there's nothing left to say.
What you claim is on it's way.
Don't want to explain myself to you.
What's in minds, corrupted too.
You say there's nothing left to say.
Our freedom's time is in delay.

Can I have a plan without commercial interest.
Without government lies, or buckets of blood to hide.
Seeking freedom for the right, my peace of mind.
When the left comes up, can never get enough they've lied.

Some refrain from politics.
Pushing thier political points of view.
Some refrain from politics.
SO SHOULD YOU.

Can't be afraid.

You think that's bad.
Political fortune.
You think that's bad.

Can't be afraid.
